

McGraw in town to 'just play music'

BY JEFFREY LUTZ
The Wichita Eagle

Tim McGraw will yell "Come on!" during his songs to get the crowd worked up. He'll tap his leg in rhythm with his singing and occasionally sway his hips.

That's about all the showmanship McGraw gives. But even with his lack of movement and excitement, his passion for his craft was evident during his performance Friday at Intrust Bank Arena.

REVIEW

McGraw belted out more than 20 songs from his two-decade career while proudly and enthusiastically announcing early that he and his band were there only to play music.

"We don't (talk)," he told the crowd, "we just play music."

And that McGraw and his band, Dance Hall Doctors, did, launching into each song about a second after finishing the previous one.

McGraw was the headliner of a country music show that included Lady Antebellum and up-and-comers

Please see CONCERT, Page 8B

Tim McGraw belted out more than 20 songs from his two-decade career during his concert at Intrust Bank Arena on Friday.

Fernando Salazar/
The Wichita Eagle

Tim McGraw 1-1

Clipped By:
jeffdlutz13
Oct 23, 2025